

Physical Facilities

- A. To achieve the goal of good library service the Bloomfield Board of Trustees accepts the responsibility to see that public library building facilities are provided which will adequately meet the physical requirements of modern, aggressive library service. Such facilities will offer to the community a compelling invitation to enter, read, look, listen and learn. Each building will fit an expanding program of library service.

- B. The Bloomfield Board of Trustees will consult with the Library Director or a consulting Library Director on renovations or the construction of a new building.

- C. The Bloomfield Board of Trustees accepts the responsibility to secure funds for needed facilities.

- D. The Library Director, the architect and the Bloomfield Board of Trustees as a planning team, with the assistance of consultants, will endeavor to plan facilities to meet recognized standards and the needs of the community.

The Library Board of Trustees reserves the right to alter this document without prior notice.
